NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The moderate depression noted over the Gulf States on Tuesday developed considerable energy, and moving northeastward became central over the upper Ohio Valley yosterday and caused brisk to high northeasterly winds on the middle Atlantic coast, rain in the Atlantic States from New York southward and in the Ohio and Tennessee valleys, and snow in the southern lake regions.

The disturbance from the Northwest dropped southfastward to a centre over Colorade and caused snow in the Northwest, the Rocky Mountains and plateau States, but possessed no remarkable vigor. It was colder in the lake regions and eastward and in the Northwest, but generally warmer throughout the interior and the southeastern quarter of the country. In this city rain fell most of the day; cooler; wind, brisk to high northeast; average humidity, 87 per cent.; barometer, corrected to read to sea lovel, at 8 A. M., 39,03; 3 P. M., 29,59.

The temperature in this city yagterday, as recorded by the official thermoneter, is shown in the annexed table:

REALTY MARKET NEWS AND COMMENT

Operator Buys Broadway Flat -Woman Secures Apartment in The Bronx.

with the closing up of affairs for the sutgoing year comparatively little trading was announced yesterday in any part of the city. An apartment on a Broadway corner in the Washington Heights section was bought by an operator from one of the landing companies and a woman bought a Broad new for the landing companies and a woman bought a Broad new for the landing companies and a woman bought a Broad new for the landing companies and the second loft at 184-183 Wooster street to the H. & B. construction operations, too, were nature numerous nor important. The alteration of a Park avenue corner dwelling into a bachelor apartment house with stores on the street level was probably the most interesting building development of the day. It was for Park avenue at least, as it is the first time a Park avenue corner has been put to such use. Leasing had wide range, affecting every class of space and nearly every section of the city.

Lawrence Takes B'Way Flat.

The Continental, a six story apartment house at the northeast corner of Broadway and 177th street, has been bought by Gustavus L. Lawrence from the Lawyers Mortgage Company, the helding price being reported at $200,000. The Continental contains seven apartments to a floor, has one store and is completely rented. It occupies a front of about 92 feet on Broadway and 100.2 feet on 177th street. The northerly line measures 115 feet.

Fifty-sixth Street Corner.

The four story dwelling at the southest corner of Park avenue and Fifty-sixth street, bought recently by a realty company from the Smith estate, is to be altered into stores and bachelor apartments. The innovation will cost about $18,000 and from information given by Harris & Vanyth, who have been seen to store and the store of the store o Harris & Vaughn, who have charge of the renting of the property, it w.ll be a pleasing one. It will be fashioned in old English style. The facade will be stucced and heavy wooden blinds will be hooked on the windows. The house fronts 20 feet on Fifty-sixth street and 100 feet on Park avenue. Heil & Stern, F. & G. Pflomm, have leased in the building on the Broadway block front from Thirty-fifth to Thirty-sixth street the entire eighth floor to Harry Kitzinger & Co. for a long term of years at an aggregate rental of about $100,000. The tenants are cloak makers now on Twenty-eighth street.

Pease & Elliman have rented in the Liberty Tower, northwest corner Liberty and Nassau streets, offices to Abraham Levy, the Inter-Seal Corporation, Charles A. Baldwin, George W. Myer, Jr., and additional space to R. P. Bolton Company.

The volume of realty trading slipped flown to its former level yesterday. For goveral weeks business has been exceptionally good, but because of the weaks or the distraction associated with the closing up of affairs for the sutgoing year comparatively little tradional space to R. P. Bolton Company has leased additional space in the Hilliard Building, at 55 John street, to the Lendon Guarantee and Accident Company, which now occupies the entire tenth fleor as well as a portion of the ninth. The Great Eastern Casualty Company has also taken a new lease for premises in the same building for a long term of years. This is one of the few buildings in the fire insurance district which has had no vacancy since its doors were opened.

BIG MOVIE ON MADISON STREET Harry H. Cohen sold for the Benenson Realty Company to Mrs. Anna M. Jones 2738 and 2740 Decatur avenue, a new five story apartment house arranged for six families on each floor. It occupies a plot, 56.9x100, located about 50 feet south of 195th street and was held at 60,000. Last month the present buyer, Mrs. Jones, acquired the adjoining house at 2736.

ELY AVENUE PLOT SALE.

Daniel H. Jackson has bought from Elinor Hutchinson a plot 50x100 on the east side of Ely avenue, 100 feet south of 236th street. This property is three blocks from White Plains avenue and 233d street subway station.

BIG MOVIE ON MADISON STREET.

Edward Wasserman as head of a syndicate has taken a long lease of the old McGuire pickle factory property at 66 to 70 Madison street, with an "L" to 46 and 45 Oliver street, as a site for a moving picture theatre. On Madison street the site has a frontage of 63 feet and a depth of 160 feet. The connecting plot on Oliver street measures 34.7x 139.11. The owner of record is the estate of James McGuire. Plans for the proposed theatre have been prepared by James S. Maher, architect, and call for a one story brick building having a seating capacity of 600 and costing about $12,000. The leasing corporation will erect the theatre. The property is across erect the theatre. The property is across from Tom Foley's Downtown Tamman
